Presents

Intuitive Soul Painting and NLP Life Purpose Integration

Tucked away in the picturesque mountains of Santa Susana in nearby Simi Valley you will find The Center for Energetic Healing; a spa-like retreat.

Join us for this extraordinary event
SUNDAY MAY 18TH 2008
9:00 AM - 4 PM

 First, in the Sunflower Art Studio surrounded by lavender, floral gardens and the spacious open loft of this light filled environment you will be guided by acclaimed healer and intuitive painter Arna Vodenos, to create your own Intuitive Soul Painting.

Sometimes, due to past experiences, aspects of our spirit break away for safe keeping and protection. See how your soul will express your spirit-self through an intuitively guided painting session. View this snapshot of where your soul is presently and invite lost aspects of your spirit to reunite with you from a healing place. This is NOT about being an artist or learning how to paint. This is an awesome healing modality thoroughly guided by your intuition to speak to you to bring clarity and healing.

 Next, bring your bathing suits and reflect and process the morning's experience in the indoor ozone purified, non-chlorinated heated swimming pool & jacuzzi, dry sauna, steam shower and meditation room. Be energized by the crystal garden and sanctuary.

While your Intuitive Soul Painting is drying, allow your physical self to catch up to the wisdom and healing brought to your soul. Relax in any and all the ways available in the spa described here. The luxury of reflection and processing time is something you deserve. It's time to be good to yourself.

 Then, enjoy a delicious lunch, provided for your dining pleasure.

 And after lunch, be guided by experienced NLP Trainer and Reiki Master - Healer Pam Castillo on what promises to be an awesome journey. One that will weave you through time and space, to that place within, that connects you to all available answers.

Discover your clarity of mind, body, spirit and be comfortable integrating the days light and wisdom with the awareness of your life's purpose.

Sink into the luxury of guided relaxation so entrancing and enveloping that time becomes imperceptible and words create pictures. Feel how language flows in and around the very fiber of your being to bring you new awareness.

 Finally, explore the Center's surrounding vistas and nature trails, to reconnect with the Earth, while the gardens celebrate and support Universal Love and Life Energy or return to the healing waters and spa.

Event is limited to 12 participants - prepaid enrollment only. Investment: $175.00
